- (b) A Member who, on the day of any General Body Meeting of the Society, is in arrears of subscription, or is liable to pay any dues to the Society, shall not be entitled to participate in any way at such a meeting.

Managing Committee Meetings:

- 14(a) The Society shall be administered by a Managing Committee consisting of a President, four Vice-Presidents, an Hon-Secretary, who shall be the Chief Executive officer of the Society and 15 members elected from among the Resident members, who have been members for a continuous period of not less than two years, on the date on which their nominations have been filed. The qualification of membership for continuous period of not less than two years shall be applicable to all office bearers. The nominations on the Society's official form must be supported by two members and signed by the candidate indicating his/her willingness to serve and must be received by the Society's office by the deadline set by the Managing Committee, which shall not be less than eight and more than fifteen days before the General Body Meeting.

While the President, Four Vice-Presidents and Hon. Secretary shall be elected in alternate years and hold office for two years, the 15 members of the Managing Committee shall be elected for a period of three years. One-third or five members shall retire every year after serving their period of three years and shall be replaced by five members elected for a three years term.

In addition to the elected members, there will be one each representative of the Central Government and the State Government, who will attend the meetings of the Managing Committee as well as the General Body. They will have no right to vote. Their travelling and other expenses will be borne by the respective Governments.

In addition, there will be a representative of the staff on the Managing Committee, elected by the Employees. The said representative will not have the rights and privileges of an elected member including the right to vote. He/she may participate in the discussion on items of agenda of the Managing Committee concerning the employees only. His/her tenure will be for two years and he/she shall be eligible for re – election.

A member who is in arrears of subscription or has any other dues payable to the Society or has been a defaulter for non – return of books on the day of nomination, shall not be eligible to seek election to the Managing Committee. The same condition shall apply to the proposer and seconder of all candidates.

- (b) No withdrawal of nomination shall be permitted within 24 hours of the time fixed for holding the Annual General Body meeting at which elections are to be held.

The Managing Committee will frame election programme and publish it on the notice board and circulate the same along with notice of the meeting of the General Body. The Managing Committee will appoint a member of the Society of at least five years' standing as Returning Officer who shall not be a member of the Managing Committee and who is not a contesting candidate. The Returning Officer will be fully in charge of the conduct of elections and his/her decision shall be final and binding on all.

No member of the Society shall hold the same office for more than three consecutive terms. Office in this context means the office of the President, the Vice-Presidents, the Hon. Secretary and the members of the Managing Committee co-opted or elected.

- (c) It shall be competent to the Managing Committee:
  - (i) to appoint an Hon. Finance Secretary from among members of the Society for the supervision of financial affairs of the Society subject to the general control of the Managing Committee. In case the Finance Secretary is not an elected member of the Committee he/she shall be an ex-officio member of the Managing Committee.

- (ii) to appoint, if necessary, not more than two Hon. Joint Finance Secretaries from among the elected members or from among the members of the Society for assisting the Hon. Finance Secretary in the performance of his/her duties. In case any or both Joint Finance Secretaries is/are not elected members of the Managing Committee, they shall be ex-officio members of that Committee.
  - (iii) To appoint, if necessary, an Hon. Jt. Secretary from among its own members.
  - (iv) The Managing Committee shall have the power to co-opt not more than two members for special reasons, who shall retire after two years.
15. In the event of a vacancy of the office bearers of the Managing Committee namely, President, Vice-Presidents and the Hon. Secretary and of the elected members of the Managing Committee it shall be filled in the next immediate election. It is further resolved that this resolution would come into effect immediately after its adoption by the General Body in its Annual General Body Meeting.

In the event that vacancy arises in the Managing Committee due to election of its members to other positions (President, Vice President/s, Hon. Secretary), the Managing Committee may co-opt from the members of the Society, to fill these vacancies. The terms of such members will be limited to the next immediate election.

16. (a)-i A Member of the Managing Committee who absents himself/herself for three consecutive meetings of the Managing Committee without leave of absence from the Committee shall automatically cease to be a member of the Managing Committee.
- ii All Office bearers and members of the Managing Committee and other office bearers should at least attend 60% of the total meetings held from the end of the AGM to the date of the Notice of the next AGM. If any office bearer or member of the Managing Committee fails to attend 60% of the total meetings then he forfeits his right to remain in that post.
  - iii The above attendance rules (16(a)(i)&(ii) will also be applicable to the Sub-Committee members.
- (b) The Managing Committee shall have the authority to enter into contracts (except for sale of books, coins, antiques and manuscripts) on behalf of the members of the Society and no such contract shall be valid, unless the same shall have been executed by the Hon. Secretary and two members of the Managing Committee.

- (c) Every member of the Managing Committee and every other officer shall be indemnified against all reasonable losses and expenses incurred in the discharge of his/her duties, except such as shall have happened through his/her own wilful neglect or default and each one, shall be answerable only for his/her own acts, neglects or defaults and not for those of any other person.

The Trustees :

17. (a) The property and funds of the Asiatic Society of Mumbai shall be vested in the Trust. Not more than Six Trustees shall be invited by the Annual General Body Meeting on the recommendation of the Managing Committee to hold the office for a period of six years. One-third of the Trustees will retire every two years. However, two members of the first Board of Trustees will retire after the first two years and will be replaced by two Trustees, who will be invited by the Annual General Body Meeting on the recommendation of the Managing Committee and who will hold office for six years. Two other members of the first Board of Trustees will retire after the first four years and will be replaced by two Trustees, who will be recommended by the Managing Committee and invited by the AGM and who will hold office for six years. The Board of Trustees will decide the time when each of the first Trustees shall retire by rotation.
17. (b) In the event of a vacancy in the office of a Trustee, caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of a Trustee who shall be invited by the Annual General Body Meeting on the recommendation of the Managing Committee to hold the office for the unexpired portion of the six years tenure.
18. At the Annual General body Meeting at which elections to the Managing Committee are held, two Statutory Auditors shall be appointed to audit the accounts of the Society on a quarterly basis for the following two years. Such Auditors shall have access to all the books of accounts of the Society and shall report on the financial position of the Society's audited accounts and Auditor's report at the close of each financial year.
19. The election of an office-bearer, or of a member of the Committee, may be cancelled on the recommendation of three-fourths of the Committee members present and voting after a due hearing given to the office-bearer or member of the Committee concerned. The recommendation, to be effective must be confirmed by two-third vote of a General Body meeting. Pending such confirmation by the General Body, the office bearer/member shall be considered ineligible to handle management of the Society or participation in any of its sub-committees unless the Managing Committee specifies to the contrary. It shall be competent for the committee of Management to refuse to any other member the use of the Library in case of improper conduct, but in every instance in which such powers are exercised, a report of the circumstances shall be made to the next General Body Meeting held subsequent to the exclusion.

20. The Managing Committee shall meet at least once in two months and shall be summoned by the Hon. Secretary, under the sanction of the President or in his/her absence, of a Vice-President or on the requisition of any six members of the Committee. The Hon. Secretary shall, within one week of the requisition, convene the meeting of the Managing Committee.
21. No business shall be transacted by the Managing Committee at such meetings unless six members are present. No quorum is required for an adjourned meeting.
22. The Managing Committee shall have power to appoint Sub-Committee for dealing with specific matters referred to them and to elect delegates to conferences or other similar gatherings, as well as representatives on other bodies. The Chairman and the Convener of the Sub-Committees shall be elected by the respective committees except where the Vice-President is a member, he/she is ex-officio Chairperson of that Committee. In the event of difference of opinion between the Committee and the Managing Committee on issues pertaining to the specific matters assigned to the Sub-Committees, the final decision shall be taken in the joint meeting of the Sub-Committee and the Managing Committee and the Managing Committee shall not take any decision unilaterally.

IV. LIBRARY AND ITS USE

  - (a) The Library shall be managed by the Managing Committee of the Society.
  - (b) The Managing Committee should give special attention to enrich the Library in the subjects and areas mentioned in article (2) above. The Managing Committee should continue its efforts for the due preservation of the Society's collection and annually report to the General Body regarding the steps taken and progress achieved.
  - (a) The books of the Library may be issued to members subject to such regulations as the Managing Committee may frame from time to time.
  - (b) Each member shall be provided with a non-transferable identity card on the payment to be decided by the Managing Committee from time to time indicating thereon his/her name, address, category of membership, account of subscription payments, and signature of the member. The Identity Card shall bear a photograph of the member and shall not be considered as valid unless it is signed by the member.
  - (c) Entry into Library will be subject to production of the Identity Card whenever demanded.

- (d) Non-member citizens will be allowed to use the Library on the premises on payment of Rs.200/- per day. For foreign nationals the charges are Rs.500/- per day (and have to fill up the Visiting Foreign Scholar Application Form).
25. Same as provided by rule 34, Books of Reference, Files of Newspapers, as well as books in bad condition, shall not be issued.
  26. No book or periodical shall be issued by the Librarian or by his/her Assistants, unless the member requiring it shall either sign a receipt thereof or send a requisition signed by himself/herself.
  27. A member requiring a book, which is issued, may enter his/her name and address on a card provided for the purpose; and it shall be the duty of the Librarian to call upon the borrower to return the said book forthwith if it is overdue, and to inform the member needing the book by e-mail once the book is available in the Library.
  28. No member shall keep any book longer than seven days after receiving notice from the Librarian that another member has applied for it. If the book is not returned within that period, the Hon. Secretary may, after due notice to the member, buy a fresh copy at defaulting member's cost.
  29. Not more than 15 books may be taken out at one time and, no book shall be kept beyond the date for return, which is normally one month from the date of issue. If a member desires to keep a book for more than one month, he/she may be given an extension of the date for return of the book by two more months, provided he/she requests the Library in writing for extension either by e-mail or post and provided the book is not required by another member.
- If, however, the member fails to return the book even after the expiry of the extended period of 60 days he/she shall be charged, two rupees, per day per book till such time as he/she returns the book/s. The member shall also be charged the expenses incurred by the Society on his/her account.
30. Books shall on requisition be sent to a Non-Resident member who is a subscriber to the Library under Rule 48, but it shall be understood that in the case of books and periodicals which have been in the Library less than six months, preference will be given to the requisitions of Resident members.
  - 31(a) All books and periodicals borrowed shall be returned for stock-taking every year, whether the time allowed for reading has expired or not, on or before a date specified in the notice, issued in that behalf, there shall be no issue of books, etc during the period of stock-taking.
  - (b) Any member who has failed to return the books and periodicals as required above, shall not be allowed to take books out of the Library until he/she sends back all the books, periodicals etc. standing in his/her name in the Society's Register at the time of such notification.

32. The Librarian or his assistants shall inspect carefully every book at the time that it is returned, and if it be found damaged, shall report to the Honorary Secretary.
33. (a) Any loss or non-return of, or damage, to a book or periodical, shall be chargeable to the member responsible for such loss, non-return, or damage. The price to be paid by the member will be ordinarily the replacement price to be determined by the Honorary Secretary and the Librarian; and in the absence of either of them, by the Deputy Librarian or an Assistant Librarian in consultation with one member of the Managing Committee. In case of books, or periodicals, not available in the market at the time, the member will have to pay the charges to the Society for getting the book or periodical xeroxed and bound.
